This 2013 GMC Terrain SLE is a fuel-efficient crossover SUV that is nearly mid-size, and is a close relative of the Chevrolet Equinox, sharing many of the same attributes and features. This vehicle was created for mid-size families, with seating for 5, and to be used as a daily driver. Performance-wise, this Terrain powers through just about anywhere with a 2.4-liter direct injected 4-cylinder engine that has active noise cancellation. Paired with this, it has a 6-speed automatic transmission with a sport-shift mode that allows you to manually toggle through gears.

The Terrain is ideally suited to the kind of driving that most owners use on a daily basis, while still having enough power to haul around children and cargo. Also in 2013, the Terrains got new dual-flow shocks that have dampers that use oil to mute road impact, promising a better firmness on smooth pavement and better shock absorption on bumpy roads.

The fuel economy of this crossover SUV is excellent, rated at 20 miles per gallon in the city and 29 miles per gallon on the highway.

This is also a CarFax certified 1-Owner vehicle, with no accidents or damage, and a detailed history of oil changes and maintenance performed. It was used as a commercial vehicle in Arkansas for roughly 5 years. An Extended Warranty is also available for this vehicle.

Electronic & Entertainment Features: In-dash touchscreen display, SiriusXM Radio functionality, Bluetooth connectivity, USB input, Auxiliary cable input, a total of 4 12v power outlets, voice recognition

Primary cable input, a total of 112V power outlets, voice recognition with phone/audio control, and audio/phone controls on the steering wheel.

Comfort & Convenience Features: Cruise controls on the steering wheel, climate control for heat and air, and power windows/locks/mirrors/seats.

Safety Features: In-dash rear-view camera with guidelines for backing up, front and rear anti-lock disc braking system, StabiliTrak system, traction control, daytime running lights, and a tire pressure monitor.
