Thank you for looking at our 2007 Porsche Carrera Cabriolet. This one owner 911 was sold new in Dallas TX. and has spent its life here. From the condition of the lenses, rubber seals and the overall lack of sun damage I feel like this car was most likely garaged. This car has clear bra plastic film in the front bumper, lower air dam, front half of the hood, mirrors and both doors. You should see some imperfections in the plastic bra in my photos. We have chosen to leave the bra intact because it helps tell the story of the car.
