Vehicle Description

AutoPark Dallas is thrilled to offer you this Beastly Gun Metallic 2009 Nissan GT-R Premium with JOTECH Stage 2 for sale! History that travels all the way back to 1964 when Prince Motor Company, a company that had long history of motor racing, tag teamed with Nissan to developed the beautiful R398 Skyline GT-R who won against Porsche in 1966 Japanese Grand Prix! Nissan the same year decided to purchase Prince Motor Company and bring the GT-R from the race world to the everyday world in 1969, which brings us to today where we the consumers still enjoy this Japanese beast of a street-legal race car! Our GT-R (R35) here at APD is the generation where the hugest body style change up occurred and it doesn't stop there, as JOTECH has given this beast some extra love to burn a whole lot more rubber!!! Do. Not. HESITATE! To swinging on by to check out why Nissan did it right with this GT-R parked in our indoor 16,000 Sq Ft Showroom located in Dallas , Texas amongst our inventory of 100+ other Performance / Modified and Luxury cars!
