dream of owning a race car. Powered by a 215-cubic-inch V8 engine that produces over 185 horsepower and 230 lb-ft of torque, this high performance machine is ready to take on the track at a moment's notice. The engine, however, is not a stock V8 engine. Fitted with straight-pipe, long-tube headers connected to twin side-exit exhausts and equipped with a Hilborn Injection system with Dial-A-Jet, among other things that make this beast a truly capable race car. This power is directed to the rear wheels through a smooth-shifting transmission for ultimate power delivery, making for a true race car driving experience that no other car can offer.

To us, what's beyond the powertrain is just as important as what makes a car run, and, despite the fact that it's a race car, this Edmunds Outlaw is no exception. The exterior body panels of the car have been crafted by Edmunds for maximum aerodynamics, and it comes with a built-in roll cage to ensure that drivers are well protected at all times. Painted in a deep black with hand-lettered, gold-leaf decals and fitted with 13" Halibrand magnesium rear wheels and 13" Weld aluminum front wheels, this sprint car is just as good-looking as it is high-performing.
