2018 Ford F150 XLT SuperCrew

In a time where new trucks are difficult to source, this 1-owner low-mileage pickup is a beautiful and qualified alternative. Notable upgrades such as a K&N intake and Borla axle-back exhaust give this Coyote V8 an aggressive growl.

Ford's signature 5.0 V8 produces 395 horsepower and 400lb-ft of torque; Encouragingly so, that's the best-in-class power, towing capacity and fuel economy for gasoline powered half-ton pickups this model year.
