2019 Ford F150 XL

Ford's F150 has been America's best selling pickup for 40 years and it's easy to see why. Get behind the wheel of this twin-turbo'd EcoBoost you'll be impressed with the power. You're in more control of that power, too with a Pedal Commander on the dash. "With 4 programs and 9 different levels in total 36 different settings, the Pedal Commander gives drivers the ability to have full control over how they want their gas pedal to respond." Be it faster performance or better fuel economy, the control is in your hands.

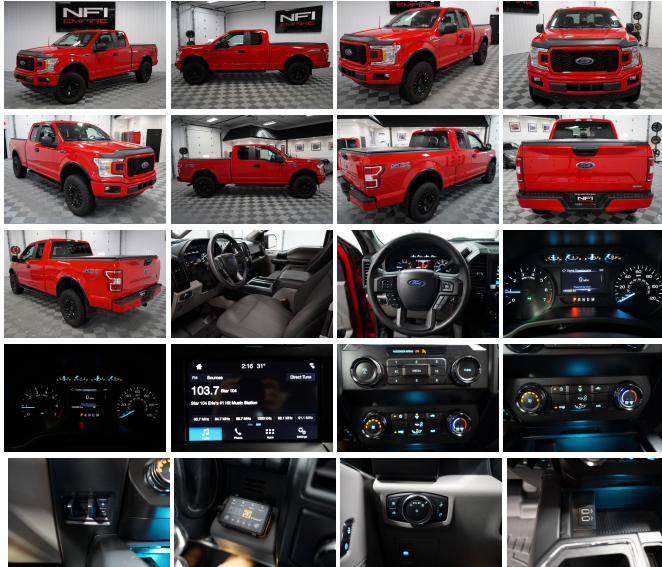

The stunning red is eye catching and contrasts beautifully with black accents: Premium Black Rhino wheels, aggressive tires, running boards, and the STX appearance package that adds a black mesh grille, privacy glass and STX badging. This truck is clean and will make a great, long-lasting family ride for it's next owner. Take it for a drive before it's gone in this wild market.
