ONE OWNER, NO ACCIDENTS. That is hard to find and with only 50K miles on a 2011 model is super hard to find. And with the market the way it is today and small SUV with very low miles and excellent gas mileage for under 15K is ararity. This is a super clean car that runs and drives excellent. It has some very desirable equipment as well. It has power windows and door locks, tilt wheel with cruise control and ice cold A/C. There is a brand new set of tires to top it off. The interior is as clean as you will find in a used vehicle. It has a very good service history on Car Fax. The only thing I can tell you is this vehicle won't last very long with school out for the summer. This will make someone a very fine means of transportation and it's stingy on gas to.
