We are proud to offer you this 2017 BMW M3 Competition Package in Rare Austin Yellow for sale!

This 2017 BMW M3 is a performance beast that has become progressively more and more insane throughout its production. This iteration of the M3, which comes with the Competition Package, is unquestionably one of the most insane cars that BMW has produced to date.

Powered by a twin-turbocharged 3.0-liter I6 engine that makes 444 horsepower and 406 lb-ft of torque, this performance-oriented sedan offers a driving experience unlike any other.

This power is delivered directly to the rear wheels via a seven-speed automatic transmission with paddle shifters or sequential shifting options, making time behind the wheel of this car feel very similar to sitting in a track-bred race car. Finished in rare Austin Yellow Metallic and fitted with 20" BMW M wheels, this aggressive beast is designed to turn heads with its sleek exterior. The interior offers just as much gusto, coming complete with heated leather "M" bucket seats, carbon fiber interior trim pieces, and a number of high-tech amenities like the adjustable drive modes and suspension settings, infotainment with Bluetooth, navigation, and rear camera, and the heads-up display.
