This is not your average everyday Trans Am GTA... and no it is not K.I.T.T. either... Just take a glance and let me know what you see? That's right, it is a notchback! Most Trans Am's are hatches over the rear storage compartment but much like its smaller counter part the Fiero it has a notch style rear deck lid! Unlike the Fiero however, this Trans Am is powered by a 5.7L LT1 V8 and has a 5 speed automatic transmission. A fully reupholstered red and tan interior to match the exterior from headliner to the carpet and it looks like no one has ever even sat in it! This Trans Am again is an odd duck and not one you will probably see again! So made sure you swing by and scoop it up before its too late! Financing is easy and trades are welcome!
