Stand out in a crowd of squatted Tahoe's with something like this All-American chunk of Chevrolet Muscle. This 1964 Malibu Chevelle has a well built 350 under the hood with a TH350 3 Speed Automatic transmission and a positraction rear end. Those are the three main ingredients to an American Pie, and this one must be Cherry because it is bright red. Long tube headers start a choppy exhaust that runs through race mufflers. It has a staggered set of tires for extra traction in the rear and less drag in the front. A tufted cloth interior makes for a smooth look and comfortable ride. It may not be a perfect car, but it is certainly among the best available in this price range. Financing is available and trades are welcome, so call or click before the next guy!
