Let me introduce you to the number one selling vehicle of all time. I Present to you the 1965 Chevrolet Impala. In this case a 2-door hardtop. This all-original beauty has been on the road all throughout the years without skipping a beat. The original 283 V8 runs and sounds great, and it does an awesome job of scooting this monster down the road with the power-glide two-speed transmission. This isn't a rusty car, it's actually a very well cared for survivor. If you're looking for something to daily drive and or take to shows, this might just be the one for you. The A/C is all in tact and working. Just hopping behind the wheel of this thing and cruising down the road for only a minute and you'll know exactly why this was the number one selling vehicle of all time. It rides so smooth, steers so easily and, well, yes it handles a little more like a boat but, going back to a newer car you'll wonder why we ever got away from building such awesome pieces of machinery. Now this one won't be here forever so swing by and check this thing out for yourself. We'll help you finance and take a trade off your hands.

Oh, and Christmas is coming up soon so share this with someone that needs to get this Impala for that special person for a stalking stuffer.
