Looking for a classic, American-built truck that's as solid as they come? Check out this 1990 Ford F150 4x4 XLT Lariat. With its powerful 302 V8 engine and the 5-speed manual transmission, this truck has the strength and durability you need for work or play. And with the 4x4 capability, you can confidently tackle any terrain. But it's not just about brawn - this truck has beauty too. Though the paint job could use some TLC, it's got a rugged charm that's hard to resist. Plus, the roomy cab and comfortable seats make this truck a pleasure to drive, whether you're heading to a job site or just cruising around town. And let's not forget the little luxuries that make a big difference - like the power windows, cruise control, and premium sound system (ok the sound system was a joke, it's missing the radio). It's the perfect combination of utility and comfort. So if you're in the market for a truck that's built to last and will turn heads wherever you go, come check out this 1990 Ford F150 4x4 XLT Lariat today.
