If you're looking for a classic car that's been given a modern twist, then this 1938 Plymouth Restomod is the perfect choice for you. With a stunning purple exterior and a luxurious tan leather interior, this car is sure to turn heads wherever you go.

Under the hood, you'll find a powerful 318 V8 engine that delivers an impressive amount of power and performance. With just 6651 miles on the clock, this car has been well-maintained and is ready to hit the open road.

But it's not just the engine that makes this car special. The exterior has been given a complete overhaul, with a custom paint job that's sure to grab attention. The purple hue is deep and rich, with a metallic finish that shimmers in the sunlight. The body has been smoothed and polished to perfection, with sleek lines and a streamlined profile that's both classic and modern.

Step inside, and you'll be greeted by a stunning tan leather interior. The seats are plush and comfortable, with plenty of room for both driver and passengers. The dashboard has been updated with modern gauges and controls, while still maintaining the classic look and feel of the original car.

But this car isn't just about looks. It's also packed with features that make it a joy to drive. The suspension has been upgraded to provide a smooth and comfortable ride, while the brakes have been improved for better stopping power. The steering is precise and responsive, making it easy to handle on both city streets and winding country roads.

Whether you're a collector or just looking for a unique and stylish ride, this 1938 Plymouth Restomod is the perfect choice. With its powerful engine, stunning exterior, and luxurious interior, it's sure to provide years of enjoyment and excitement.
