Keystone Montana 3150RL11 Fifth Wheel

We got ourselves another great rig! This single-owner lightly used fifth wheel is in excellent shape inside and out. Having kept their beloved mission maker under covered storage, it doesn't show those classic signs of weather and wear. Take a look at the pics! The decals are near perfection and the awning is clean, no stains!

The inside is just as wonderful, don't fret. The carpet is fresh. No real signs of wear like scratches and bumps on the walls, no sit marks on the furniture, it even smells good... The storage capacity is off the hook. There is so much room. You will, for sure, need to hold back due to weight restrictions There's that much room.
