This 2004 Ford Ranger Edge commands attention, and it's easy to see why! With just 112K miles, it boasts a muscular stance thanks to a body lift, a bold Raptor-style grille, and a black bull bar up front. A fresh set of 15" American Racing wheels wrapped in brand-new Cooper STT PRO 32x11.50 tires complete the look, giving it the perfect balance of rugged capability and street appeal. Under the hood, the 4.0L V6—the largest engine offered in the Ranger—delivers plenty of power to handle whatever the road (or trail) throws at it. The exterior shines with better paint than most, and the interior is just as clean, reflecting the care this truck has received over the years. Inside, you'll find ice-cold A/C and everything working just as it should, ensuring a comfortable and worry-free ride. Whether you're looking for a daily driver with attitude or a weekend adventure machine, this Ranger is ready to roll. Financing is available, and trades are welcome. Call, click, or stop by today!
