Step into the world of refined German engineering with this sleek 2006 Volkswagen Rabbit Base, a testament to a blend of comfort and performance. With only 85,214 miles on the odometer, this Rabbit is just hitting its stride, ready to deliver many more miles of driving pleasure to its new owner.

The exterior of this Rabbit is cloaked in a timeless black finish that exudes sophistication and class. The color not only makes a statement on the road but also hides minor imperfections and is easier to maintain, keeping your vehicle looking pristine for years to come.

Under the hood lies a robust 2.5L I5 engine, delivering a hearty 150hp and 170ft. lbs. of torque. This powerplant is paired with a smooth 6-Speed Shiftable Automatic transmission, offering you the ease of an automatic with the option to take control when you crave a more spirited driving experience. This combination ensures a responsive and engaging ride, whether you're navigating city streets or cruising on the highway.

Inside, you'll find a cabin designed with your comfort in mind. The Cruise control system allows for stress-free long-distance travel, while the Cargo area light and full-size matching spare tire ensure you're prepared for any situation. The front floor mats, crafted from plush carpet material, add a touch of luxury underfoot and are a breeze to clean.

The Rear vents in the second row ensure that passengers enjoy the same level of comfort as those in the front, while the Front air conditioning and Air filtration systems maintain a pleasant and allergentree environment inside the cabin. The Window detogger in the rear and Heated windshield washer jets are thoughtful touches that make driving in adverse weather conditions a worry-free experience.

Power windows elevate convenience to new heights, and the Heated side mirrors ensure clear visibility during those chilly mornings. With power Side mirror adjustments, you can easily find the perfect viewing angle without having to leave the comfort of your seat.

Safety isn't overlooked, as this Rabbit comes equipped with Daytime running lights to increase your visibility to others, no matter the time of day. The steel wheels provide durability and a solid foundation for your driving adventures.

This 2006 Volkswagen Rabbit doesn't just promise reliability and comfort; it also boasts the prestigious title of Edmunds's Lowest True Cost to Own, ensuring that your investment is a wise one. This award signifies that the Rabbit is not only affordable to purchase but also economical to maintain over time, offering peace of mind for the cost-conscious buyer.

This Volkswagen Rabbit is a vehicle that's been crafted with care and engineered to last. It's a perfect choice for anyone seeking a dependable, comfortable, and efficient vehicle with a touch of European flair. Don't miss the opportunity to make this Rabbit your trusted companion on the road. Come in for a test drive today and experience the perfect blend of German precision and everyday practicality!
