Step into the realm of sleek design and invigorating performance with the 2010 Scion tC, a vehicle that's not just a mode of transportation but a statement of style and reliability. With a modest 73,963 miles on the odometer, this car is eager to hit the road and create new memories with its next proud owner.

Let's begin with the exterior – a stunning white that exudes purity and sophistication. It's a color that remains timeless and is sure to turn heads as you cruise down the street. Complementing the pristine exterior is the body-color front bumper and side mirrors with integrated turn signals, ensuring that every detail is harmonious and thoughtfully designed.

Slide into the driver's seat and you'll be greeted by a chic black cloth interior that offers a comfortable and supportive embrace for every journey. The steering wheel, trimmed in supple leather, feels luxurious at your fingertips, providing a tactile connection to the road.

Under the hood lies the heart of the Scion tC – a robust 2.4L I4 engine delivering a peppy 161hp and 162ft. lbs. of torque. It's an engine that balances zestful acceleration with the efficiency you crave, ensuring that every drive is as thrilling as it is economical.

The Scion tC isn't just about good looks and performance; it's also packed with features that enhance your driving experience. Enjoy the convenience of power windows and the clarity of a rear window defogger, ensuring optimal visibility in all conditions. The tire pressure monitoring system provides peace of mind, keeping you informed and safe on your travels.

But the true gem of this vehicle is the rear moonroof with fixed glass, a feature that not only adds to the car's sleek silhouette but also bathes the cabin in natural light, creating an airy and open atmosphere. It's a
