Built here in Concord, Ca around 1990 by the owner. The car was originally a very clean original from the Palm Desert. Painted in a tu-tone green and white. The paint has held up well with a few blemishes. Custom aluminum Briz bumpers. Frenched power antenna. Engine was a fresh build 350 with a Turbo 350 automatic transmission. A Chevy Nova donor car was used for its front clip frame and rearend. Power steering. Power drum brakes.

Interior was upholstered by Skip from Concord, Ca. VDO gauges with billet housings. Tilt wheel. Kenwood stereo. Working air conditioning. The 43k miles on the odometer is correct since built. This car was built to drive and has visited 17 states on various rod runs and Nationals visits. Excellent running and driving car. Clean California title in-hand.
