Vehicle Description

Additional photos are available on I-95 Muscle's direct website.

Here's a cool '92 F150 that's got more than just a vintage vibe. It's rocking a hefty Ford stroker engine, 557 cubic inches of pure grunt, with a tunnel ram and dual quads that'll get your pulse jumping. This combination lets this big block rev so fast you'd have no idea it was a big block! The rear setup is tight with a 4 link and 9" rear, cruising on QA1 coilovers for a solid, smooth ride. It's sporting a fresh blue coat and a comfy gray interior. Plus, it's got Nitto NT555 tires and SVE wheels, giving it a modern twist on the classic '90s Lightning look. This truck's all about mixing old-school cool with a bit of new-school edge, ready to hit the streets, turn heads and probably embarrass some muscle cars.
